

Amazing Love

I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.—John 17:23

Human love cannot compare to God's great love. Human love is temperamental. Man's love changes as his feelings change. Conditions affect our emotions and emotions affect our thoughts.

God's love is unconditional and unchanging. Because God sees us in Christ, His love for us is immutable.

Human love is temporary. Do you remember when you were young and had a "best friend" one day and the next day it was someone else? I am sorry to say, we discard relationships when people let us down. Just look at the divorce rate and the number of children being emancipated from their parents.

God's love is eternal. He has always loved you. He loves you right now more than you could possibly realize.

Human love is tentative. People enter relationships with conditions, cautions, and uncertainties. Many relationships are built on what a person can get out of it. Often men chose who they will love for the wrong motives. These ulterior motives are self-seeking.

God's love is completely selfless. He always loves sacrificially. He gave the greatest gift when He sent His Son to die in your place. There isn't anything He would not do that is best for you.

There are many reasons that we do not feel worthy of God's love. We know our sins and the number of times we have failed the Lord. Yet, God knows our sins and He loves us as He loved Jesus.

Amazing love! How can it be that Thou, my God shouldst die for me?
