

An Important Day

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. –Ephesians 5:15-17

God has given us life today for a reason. It has been said that there is no such thing as an unimportant day in anyone's life. You may think that nothing important happened today, but there are lives you touched by the things you said. There are thoughts you thought that made changes in your mind.

It is no accident that you are alive today, and God expects you to use your time wisely. That does not mean that you have to work every minute, in fact, Jesus got away from the crowds at times to rest and spend time with God the father or to invest time in his friends.

Sometimes we may think that we are not important so our day is not important to God. Our culture views importance by a different standard than God. The world may push us to be recognized for some great accomplishment which causes us to promote ourselves. No so with God, He recognizes us for doing His will.

God made us awesome and unique (Psalm 139:14). He has a job for you to do and He has given you today to do His will.
