

Eager Expectation

*My soul wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from Him only.
—Psalms 62:5*

Nothing demonstrates eager anticipation more than a child on Christmas morning. He doesn't allow his parents a moment to rest. He certainly doesn't want to take time for breakfast. He has great expectations. He doesn't want to waste a minute because he expects the presents under the tree to bring them great delight.

In our soul, we are expecting something. Do we have eager anticipation of the gifts that God is giving us, or are we burdened with uncertainty and expectation of something unpleasant? God has said that "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights . . ." James 1:17.

The same God who sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to be born in a manger and die an agonizing death because He loved you, gives you good and perfect gifts every day. It is God Himself who is preparing a place for you and will come again and receive us. Are you living in eager expectation of God's wonderful gifts for you?
