

God Achieves His Purpose

*I cry unto God Most High, unto God that performeth all things for me.
He shall send from heaven, and save me, from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.*

--Psalm 57: 2-3

This has been a trying week. I know you have been in a situation when you tried to do things right and someone attacked you for it. At first I thought, "God why are you doing this?" but then I remembered even in this heated attack, God had a purpose.

When you were first saved, you may have been told that "God had a plan for your life." You began your walk with the Lord excited to see what wonderful things God had in store. As time went on, hardships and trials came and you realized that this was not going to be an easy road. You may have lost sight of God's plan.

When we experience the big things like cancer or a flood, we are helpless and so we turn to God and ask Him to use this for His purpose. But with the little things we are reluctant to turn them over to Him and allow Him to accomplish His purpose. When we have a friend turn against us, when we have a day that everything seems to go wrong, when we have to make changes in our life that we don't like, we don't think about God's purpose in every aspect of our lives

I began with a situation where someone was angry and humiliated me. I wanted to handle that myself and make it right but God reminded me that He had a purpose. I thought, what could that purpose be when I was hurt and made to look foolish? God used it to change my attitude so that I was ready to follow His plan. I believe He accomplished His purpose.

God has a purpose in all that comes into our lives. He will use the obstacles and the opportunities so that we can glorify Him as He achieves His purpose in our lives.
