Proclaim the Good News

*Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.
– Matthew 28:20*

Believers all over the world should proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ in every situation. However, all too often we are silent. For various reasons, many Christians keep their beliefs to themselves and the world suffer from their failure to speak up.

As believers, we are called to be the light of the world. “You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house” (Matthew 5:14-15).

As the song indicates, we are not to hide that light, but let it shine for others to see. And we are not to let Satan put that light out.

As believers, we are to share the transforming message of Jesus Christ with our families, our neighbors, our co-workers, and the world.

Jesus also commands us to be fishers of men. It is time to be about our Father's business and share the Good News of Jesus Christ today. Tomorrow may be too late.

“Christianity spread rapidly during the first century because all Christians saw themselves as responsible for disseminating the gospel.” –Erwin Lutzer
