

Radiant Christian

Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.—1 Peter 3:3-4

It seems like women of all ages strive to be beautiful. From the girls who want to look like the latest pop star to the teenager who must have designer clothes and a spa coiffure. As adults we often fall into the same thinking.

The Bible gives other standards to assess the radiant Christian. The scripture tells us that we are to be the light of the world. The light of Christ filters through our lives and as we glorify Him others will see the radiant Christian.

The Bible tells us that man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart. As God works in our heart that we become more like Him, as we are adorned with a meek and quiet spirit, we become a radiant Christian.

In Daniel 12:3, the radiant Christian of the future is described, “And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.”
