The Work of our Hands

Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands for us.—Psalm 90:17

So often we labor and Satan robs us of the joy of a job well done. We often look at what we have accomplished and measure it by the world. Perhaps our vision is out of focus, and our measuring stick is distorted. We miss God's blessing when we believe that the outcome of our toil is up to us.

God requires us to be faithful. He expects us to work, but blessing of that work is up to Him. We may not know how He is using our labor, or why He has called us to do a particular task, but we can be sure that the establishment of our work is His responsibility.

We need to work as God directs, and rest upon Him to let his beauty be upon us and establish our work. The outcome of our work is not related to how smart, how talented, or how strong we are. The outcome is related to the power of our Lord.

We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.—II Corinthians 4:17
