

Today's Choice

I delight to do Thy will, O my God: yea, Thy law is within my heart.—Psalm 40:8

Today I heard a speaker say, "Give God today and He will take care of your tomorrow." This gentleman determined in his heart as a college student that He wanted Christ to be Lord of each day. He knew nothing of the marvelous journey that lay ahead. He was an art major and sought to glorify God with each of his paintings. Today his paintings of airplanes in flight, hang in the pentagon and free governments around the world. When his painting of the burning Pentagon on 9/11 was dedicated, top officials including the vice president were in attendance. In the artist's remarks at the dedication he explained that he painted the serene skies over the devastation and destruction of Washington, DC to show amidst all the horror, God was still in control.

Your choice to follow God today will affect the outcome tomorrow. God is in control and He wants you to trust Him with your tomorrows. As you chose to trust Him and obey Him, He will lead you in the right path.

God wants us to give Him today—to put Him first in all we do. We may worry about what will happen if we do that. What will happen if we reject the pressures of the world and yield to God's directions? God has that all worked out in just the right way.

He wants us to delight in doing His will—to serve Him without question.

Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.—Ephesians 6:6
