"Without Faith"

"But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." Hebrews 11:6

We do things everyday that requires faith: some are insignificant, like sitting in a chair and having faith that the chair will hold us. Other acts require more faith, like buying a car or a home, going off to college, moving, or changing jobs. When we sign a contract, we are exercising our faith. We are committing to do something based on our faith in the other party to the contract. Let's take the purchase of a car. We sign the contract committing our finances to pay for the car and expecting the seller of the car to reward us with a reliable vehicle.

God never breaks a promise. What He says He will do, He does. We have every reason in the world to trust Him. He tells us that without faith, we cannot please Him. He also promises to reward those who diligently seek Him.

Is there something God wants you to do? When we have faith in Him and believe that He is and that He is the rewarder of those who diligently seek Him, we obey His direction and act in faith. Faith leads to obedience and obedience leads to God's reward.
